

Bio of Jeffrey P. Orlowski (11-2023)

Jeff is President and CEO of LifeShare Network and its subsidiary organizations and is President of the LifeShare Foundation. Jeff has 36 years of experience in organ and tissue donation and a history of Board and community service. He currently serves as Vice President for the International Society of Donation and Procurement, as a member of the MTF Biologics Board of Directors, as Vice Chair of the Donation Board of Trustees for MTF, and as Chair of the Oklahoma Governor's Advancement of Wellness Advisory Council. He is a Past President of AOPO and of Donate Life America and recently completed terms on the UNOS and OPTN Boards as well as both Boards' Executive and Finance Committees. He has been honored with awards including "Metro's Most Influential Leaders" by 405 Business Magazine, 55over55 Inspiring Oklahomans, AATB Jeanne C. Mowe Distinguished Service Award, AOPO/Sallop "Excellence in Leadership" Award, AOPO President's Award, and as the 2020 Top Midsize Business Leader by the Daily Oklahoman Best Places to Work. He has authored or co-authored numerous journal articles and presented more than one hundred scientific abstracts and invited lectures around the world.